TAX COMPLIANCE

We are linked to our clients as business partners and we offer high quality services focused on the specific characteristics of their business.

Several businesses face the problem that fiscal regulations face constant changes and, for this reason, it is difficult to keep in-house staff responsible for preparing returns and informative forms. External services of tax compliance have become a business strategy, which allows businesses to comply with their fiscal obligations while contracting a service provider capable of performing the following tasks.

I. Review of the income tax return

Our work focuses in identifying situations that might be objected by the Tax Authorities. Our service, includes not only verifying the supporting documentation, but also hold interviews with key personnel of the Company, with the purpose of detecting possible risks that might be corrected before submitting the form.

II. Permanent assessment in tax compliance matters

Our service is oriented to verifying tax compliance, with the different tax obligations which affect the Company. To achieve this purpose, we will review, the different tax forms which we find that affect the Company, before they are submitted to the Fiscal Authorities.

III. Preventive audit in tax matters (tax diagnostic)

Preventive audit is done to verify proper compliance with tax provisions required by the Company. Through this service we determine the compliance levels, deviations, excess payments, lack of payments and mistakes in the calculations of each of the obligations.

The purpose of the tax diagnostic is to determine the current position of the company to detect, correct and structure the operations, documents and records, with the purpose of minimizing tax risks.

TRANSFER PRICING

BDO targets creative solutions of transfer pricing. Whether they are simple or complex, we offer pragmatic, practical and clear assessment to identify any fiscal risk and opportunities to better advise our clients in informed decision-making on transfer pricing.

Our multidisciplinary team consists of professionals in Economics, Accounting, Finance, and Law, allowing us to comply with different needs in fulfilling their tax obligations in transfer pricing matters as well as to the upsurge of new obligations that may impact their business model.

Our pillar is always to provide a quality service, adapted to the specific needs of each client.
